

THE PITTSBURGH IMMIGRANT

ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL ESSAY COMPETITION

Current High School students are invited to submit articles and essays on Immigration-related topics. Suggested topics are:

What it means to be an Immigrant in Pittsburgh/America.

Is Immigration good or bad for our country?

What Pittsburghers can do to bring together the city's different ethnic communities.

Stories can also be submitted on the contribution of different ethnic communities to Pittsburgh, or about specific Immigrants. Submissions should not exceed 2000 words.

The winner will get a cash prize of $100, a certificate, special recognition in our magazine, and have his or her article published in the next issue. 2nd and 3rd place winners will also have their articles published in future issues.

Articles should be emailed to: info@pciu.org by May 30th, 2009. Results will be announced on June 30 and posted on our website. To see a sample of the publication, visit the newsletter page at: www.pittsburghimmigrant.com.
